Brief Terms and Conditions

All goods remain the property of Delta PC until all outstanding sums owed to Delta PC have been settled in full.

All invoices are nett, plus carriage and vat at the appropriate rates.

Any items sent away for service or repair are sent with the risk being limited to that of the courier company and the repair company.

Delta PC will accept no liability further to that of the courier company and the repair company.

Credit terms are...

Invoices should be settled in full within 30 days of the invoice date.

It is agreed that all invoices will be settled in full and that no monies will held back pending solution of any issues or problems which Delta PC is actively pursuing.

No items are supplied on "sale or return" terms.

No goods (faulty or otherwise) will be accepted for return without the prior agreement of Delta PC.

Completion of page 1 of this application indicates and confirms your complete acceptance of both these brief terms and conditions, and our full terms and conditions, copies of which are available on request or which may be downloaded from our web site at www.deltapc.com.
